

A Home & a Haven

through various activities that include providing groceries and toiletries, Christmas “dress a child project”, Easter egg hunt, a picnic for the children at the Kirstenbosch Gardens during the holidays, Mother’s Day gift for Maria, donation of bread for 52 weeks and donations of clothing, books and toys from across the Jewellery Division.

The support of Solomon’s Haven is on going and by so doing, helps Maria make her house, a home and a haven.

America Swiss (ASJ) is the leading contemporary jewellery retailer offering new and exciting merchandise for the inspirational, confident individual. The brand characteristics of confidence, glamour and fashion are reflected in everything from advertising to store design. ASJ is where you go to “spoil yourself”. By contrast Sterns offers stylish jewellery for special occasions to “spoil your loved one”. The newly launched Matrix is for the generally younger customer in search of fashion branded watches, eyewear, cell phones and niche jewellery ranges.

As part of their mission to make a difference in the lives of children, the Foschini Group’s Jewellery Division (American Swiss, Sterns and Matrix) supports Solomon’s Haven, a home for abandoned, abused and disabled children in Mitchell’s Plain.

Founder, Maria Solomon, who was also a finalist in the Cape Times/V&A Waterfront 2003 Woman of Worth awards opened her personal home and made it a haven for the 14 children she now fosters. “When they come here, I don’t feel like they belong to someone else, I immediately take them as my own,” says Maria. Her mission is to empower, educate and mould these children into wholesome individuals who will enter the world confidently, knowing that opportunity exists for them.
