

Look Good, Do Good, Feel Good!

In support of the White Ribbon Campaign, The Foschini Retail Group is pledging R250 000 to Child Welfare South Africa (CWSA). We are asking you to add your contribution to ours and donate R10 by smsing the word WHITE RIBBON to 38135.

Look Good - wear a white ribbon from 25 November to 10 December and join us in supporting the WHITE RIBBON - Act Against Abuse Campaign

Do Good - donate R10 to Child Welfare South Africa by smsing the word, WHITE RIBBON to 38135.

Feel Good - be one of 10 caring customers to receive Group Gift Vouchers worth R5000 each. Yours to give to a CWSA Charity of your choice.

16 Days of Activism - Unite against Women and Child Abuse is a United Nations campaign. It takes place annually from 25 November (International Day of No Violence Against Women) to 10 December (International Human Rights Day). This campaign focuses primarily on generating an increased awareness of the negative impact of violence on women and children.

Child Welfare South Africa is an umbrella body that represents 169 affiliates and branches as well as developing children's organisations in communities throughout South Africa. Together with its members it forms the largest non-profit, non-governmental organisation in the country in the fields of child protection and child and family care and development.
