

The Foschini Group supports the Arts.

On the 26 May 2007, as part of a CSI initiative, the Foschini Group hosted 70 young dancers from the Zama Dance School in Gugulethu to a matinee performance of the ballet Carmen, at the Artscape Theatre. "It all forms part of our aim to support projects that educate children about arts, culture and environment in order for these to be sustained."

This outing to the ballet was made possible with the kind donation of the show tickets by the Cape Town City Ballet to the Foschini Group. The donation of tickets was as a result of the Foschini Group making a financial contribution towards two productions of the CPT City Ballet, viz Nomvulo and Carmen.

Making the tickets available to the Zama Dance School allowed us to contribute to the development of a love of the arts in general in the children. Something which can only be achieved if they are exposed to as many live performances, rehearsals and different types of theatre experiences as possible. Being dancers themselves, it also develops their dance and theatre awareness.

Through the medium of dance, the Zama Dance School is "creating a spirit of happiness and a sense of worth" amongst disadvantaged children in the Gugulethu community.

The Foschini Group has been sponsoring Zama Dance School for over 15 years.
