6. BENEFITS PAYABLE:

b. Retrenchment benefit

This applies to the Principal Insured only (i.e. the retrenchment benefit is not available to the Spouse) and the Waiting Period is applicable. Should the Principal Insured become unemployed or suffer loss of employment due

The total retrenchment benefit is the sum of all instalments credited to the Principal Insured's Foschini Group credit facility in terms of this Policy. For example, if the Principal Insured's Foschini Group credit facility was credited with a total of R100, then the Principal Insured will also receive R100 as an additional benefit. Disclosure in terms of Section 106(5)(b) of the National Credit Act 34 of 2005

Please take notice that, in terms of Section 106 (5) (b) of the Act, the purchase of the credit insurance policy proposed by Foschini Group to the Principal Insured accrues the following:
Costs of the credit insurance for which the Principal Insured is liable	R6.27
Binder and intermediary fee payable to Foschini Group in relation to the policy	R1.57
Premium payable	R7.84

The Principal Insured has the right to substitute the above credit insurance policy with a credit insurance product of the Principal Insured's choice.

There is an additional premium (as specified in the Foschini Group credit facility statement of account) payable for the Spouse where this option has been selected. By agreeing to take out this Policy, the Principal Insured consents to the Administrator debiting and collecting the premium from the Principal Insured's Credit Facility; afterwards, in addition to the terms and conditions of this Policy, the terms and conditions of the Credit Facility will apply. The premium payable may attract interest where the Foschini Group credit facility payment plan attracts interest and such interest may be retained by the Administrator, and will be levied at the same rate applicable to the credit facility.

10. CESSATION OF COVER:

Cover under this Policy shall automatically end on the day that:

- the instalments that are due are unpaid (and as provided for in clause 9 above) i.e. the Insured's Foschini Group credit facility is in arrears;

Where the Spouse option has been selected and where the Spouse reaches sixty-five (65) years of age, or where the death benefit becomes payable in respect of the Spouse under this Policy, cover in respect of the Spouse only shall end and cover for the Principal Insured shall not end until the latter reaches the age of sixty-five (65) years, retires or until any of the other events as above in this clause occur.

Guardrisk shall not be affected by any arrangements that may be made between the Administrator and the Principal Insured in any reduction of the number of instalments originally agreed on or extending the period for the repayment of the indebtedness beyond that originally agreed upon.

11. CLAIMS NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

All claims must be notified to Foschini within 90 days of the Claim Event, otherwise the Claimant will have to provide the Administrator with an affidavit, detailing the reasons for late submission of the claim. The claim may be rejected unless there are extenuating circumstances that prevented timeous notification.

Claimants should approach their closest Foschini Group store and request a claim form. The details thereon must be fully completed and handed to the store with the documents listed below. It is important that the claimant is a person nominated by the Principal Insured and is fully aware of the existence of this Policy.

The store staff will help the Insured with the claims notification procedure, if needed. In addition, the claimant must take the following documents to the store:

a. Death benefit

- certified copy of the claimant's identity document.

b. Retrenchment benefit

For both benefits, affidavits may need to be provided. The claim form has details on this. In respect of the death benefit, if required by Guardrisk, the Principal Insured or his / her representative shall consent to a post-mortem examination of the Insured by a physician appointed by Guardrisk. The store will fax or email these documents to the Foschini Group claims administration department. In the event of queries, the Claims administration department's sharecall number is 0860 000 388.

Where the Principal Insured, or his / her representative, disputes Guardrisk's rejection of her/his claim (which the Administrator does on behalf of Guardrisk), the Principal Insured, or his / her representative, has 90 (ninety) days from the date of receipt of the rejection letter to make representations (in writing) to Guardrisk in respect of this decision. If the dispute is not resolved at the end of this period then the Principal Insured, or his / her representative, must within a further 6 (six) months institute legal action by way of the service of summons against Guardrisk, failing which the Principal Insured, or his / her representative, will forfeit his / her claim and no liability can arise in terms of such claim. Guardrisk is not liable after 12 (twelve) months have expired from the date of the Claim Event, unless the claim is the subject of a pending court case between Guardrisk and the Principal Insured, or his / her representative, or subject to arbitration by agreement, or is a claim for sums of money for which the Insured may become liable. Please contact the Administrator for a copy of the Administrator's Claims policy.

12. MISREPRESENTATION:

All sums insured, amounts and limits reflected in this Policy and TFG credit facility statements of account are inclusive of VAT.

In terms of a ruling issued by the South African Revenue Service, this Policy together with proof of payment of premium constitutes an alternative to a tax invoice, debit note or credit note as contemplated in sections 20(7) and 21(5) of the Value - Added Tax Act 89 of 1991 respectively.
